

Venice International University – TEN Center
Shanghai Environmental Protection Bureau Training Program
Capacity Building on Clean Development Mechanism

Shanghai, March 23-25, 2006

Location: Merry Hotel, Shanghai

Course Agenda

Lecture: An introduction to the CDM: The scientific background and policy framework related to climate change (B. Buchner, Fondazione Eni Enrico Mattei)

Lecture: The financial aspect: developments of the CDM market (B. Buchner, Fondazione Eni Enrico Mattei)

Lecture: An overview of the CDM: Key issues and the situation of CDM in the real world (B. Buchner, Fondazione Eni Enrico Mattei)

Lecture: Legal steps and key issues in developing a CDM project (J. Chiavari, Fondazione Eni Enrico Mattei)

Lecture: How to obtain CDM credits (CERs)? A step-by-step approach through the project cycle. (J. Chiavari, Fondazione Eni Enrico Mattei)

Lecture: Baseline and additionality. Two key issues in the CDM approval process (J. Chiavari, Fondazione Eni Enrico Mattei)

Lecture: Assessment and certification of emission reductions through CDM projects: a case study (J. Chiavari, Fondazione Eni Enrico Mattei)

Lecture: Some conclusions and thought on future developments related to CDM and China (B. Buchner, Fondazione Eni Enrico Mattei)

Lecture: Importance and Prospects of CDM in Shanghai: case studies (Mr. Qiu, SDRC - Shanghai Development and Reform Commission)

Lecture: The current status and progress of CDM project development and implementation in China (Lu Guoqian, SEPA)

Lecture: Development of landfill gas CDM projects in China: potential, procedure and case projects (Lu Guoqian, SEPA)

Lecture: CDM: The Italian Experience in China (Sara Leggio, Sino Coop Program Beijing Office)